12 CASTLE ROAD, WHITBY- 4 bed Semi-Detached House -£450,000

This handsome semi-detached home offers beautifully proportioned family accommodation extending to approximately 1,700 square feet, thoughtfully enhanced by recent comprehensive improvements including a new roof, full rewiring, contemporary double-glazing, and tasteful redecoration throughout. The generous ground floor arrangement provides three distinct reception rooms, ideally suited to modern family living. The inviting lounge features an attractive log burning stove, creating a welcoming focal point, whilst the separate sitting room and dining room offer wonderful flexibility for both everyday living and gracious entertaining. The kitchen remains in its original condition and will require refurbishment, presenting an excellent opportunity for purchasers to create a bespoke space to their own specification. Period character abounds throughout, with elegant decorative plasterwork and handsome panelled doors adding distinction to the interior spaces. Four well-proportioned double bedrooms provide excellent family accommodation, complemented by a modern shower room and separate WC fitted to a high standard. The property benefits from gas central heating and double-glazing throughout, ensuring comfort and efficiency in all seasons. To the rear, a delightful west-facing garden enjoys afternoon and evening sunshine, providing an ideal setting for outdoor relaxation and family enjoyment. The detached garage offers valuable additional storage and parking facilities. The location proves particularly appealing for families, positioned within easy reach of well-regarded local schools and convenient amenities, combining residential tranquillity with everyday practicality.
